Please invite your children or grandchildren, your friends, neighbors, and acquaintances from preschool, primary school, middle school, high school, college, and trade schools to come have special prayers prayed for a safe and blessed new school year, not only for backpacks, but for students, teachers, staff, and schools as well. Let us bathe our community in prayer at the start of a new school year!

Imagine Museum Outing Sunday, August 27, 1 PM

ALL GLASS AND ARTWORK! Really cool art! On Sunday August 27th at 1:00 PM, the First Presbyterian Explorers (sometimes called the Fun, Friends, and Fellowship group) will be gathering at St. Pete's Imagine Museum. FREE PARKING, handicap-accessible building, and hopefully a fun docent tour guide will be on our schedule! The cost is ONLY $5 this month. For details or to use one of Dave's already purchased tickets, see Dave Hunt on a Sunday, call him at 727-739-6961 or contact the Church Office.

Sunday School Helpers Needed

Volunteers are needed to assist Diane Zuercher in a new children's Sunday School class (starting Sept. 10) from 10 – 10:40 AM. This position may be rotated among 2-4 people.

Kitchen Volunteers Needed

Starting Sept. 13, once or twice a month (usually Wednesday evenings) we will need kitchen volunteers when food is served for church events, to help with set up and/or clean up. Thanks!

If you are able to help with any of these volunteer opportunities, please contact Pastor Jeanie Barnes (jbarnes@fpc-stpete.org) or Amy McCutcheon in the Church Office (727-822-2031).

Coffee Hour Crew Needed

We're looking for discerning, insightful, and fun folks for a committee to help kick off the new after-Sanctuary-church "coffee hour." Call Eva Popovich at 707-217-6030 or email eva1popo@gmail.com NOW. We need you!

FPC's Little Free Library is HUNGRY for Children's Books!

Thank you for taking your books directly to the Little Free Library (the church office isn't able to accept them).

Help That's Truly WANTED and NEEDED

The Edible Peace Patch

"To cultivate healthy minds and bodies through hands-on educational gardens." That's the motto of the R'Club's Edible Peace Patch. Do you like to teach? Do you enjoy gardening? This may be the opportunity just for you. Young hungry minds and bodies need your help. The Edible Peace Patch, which was begun in 2009 by several Eckerd College students, now works with eight Title 1 elementary schools in St. Pete, schools working with lower-income kids. Plus, there's one community garden. The schools' curricula are approved by the Pinellas County School Board.

"The children working with these gardens are seeing their science scores improve significantly," says FPC's Lynne Mormino. "These gardens are a real morale booster."

There are two ways you can get involved:

- First, you can help these children plant and/or weed their gardens on a weekly basis from August to May from 9 AM to noon. (With the current temperatures you may consider starting in a later month.) You can check the weekly volunteer calendar to see what school has a workday available.
- Or secondly, you can be a garden education volunteer to help teach a hands-on class of elementary children in their garden. This is an 8-week commitment, once a week for 45 minutes each time.

For more information on R'Club's Edible Peace Patch, please click HERE. Or contact the Edible Peace Patch's Nicole Bigda (727.692.9764; nbigda@rclub.net). Or you may contact FPC member Lynne Mormino (727.667.4712; lmormino@tampabay.rr.com).

St. Petersburg Free Clinic

Founded in 1970, the Free Clinic continues to grow quickly as the needs of the city's homeless community are growing exponentially. With this growth comes the need for evermore volunteers.

Volunteers to log in persons needing food, medical and dental help and financial help; volunteers to serve as client advocates; volunteers to pack up non-perishable foods; volunteers to pack up snack bags; volunteers to help with walk-in clients and drive-throughs.

Whatever your skill and interest, there seems to be a need. You may remember that two of our church members are former CEOs with the Free Clinic, Jane Egbert and Beth Houghton. Currently these church members are volunteers there: Susan Schlecht, Debbie Factor, Chris Agee, and Lynne Mormino. Possibly more.

Want to know more specifically what's involved? Go to this St. Pete Free Clinic link. Or you may contact FPC member Susan Schlecht (727.735.5332 or schlecht21975@gmail.com).

First Presbyterian's Mission Committee

Are you looking for a way to get more involved in our church without getting overly committed? Our church's mission outreach is growing broader and deeper, and our committee's current number of seven members is not enough to keep up with all the demand.

We need your help!

If you have any interest in knowing what the Mission Committee is doing and how you might connect, please contact our Chair Sandi Averitt (727.424.9300; saveritt@tampabay.rr.com) or vice-chair Carlen Maddux (727.504.8201; cmaddux@maddux.com).

Power Hour Sunday School Class Resumes Sept. 10

Join The Power Hour Sunday School Class on September 10 for a discussion on Walter Brueggemann's "Class Warfare in the Bible." You'll want to join the group every Sunday for lively study and discussion on topics relevant to the lives we live today. The class starts at 10:00 a.m. (following the 9:00 a.m. Connect Service) in the Youth Center.

Ladies, you are invited to a new Bible Study starting September 12

Isaiah Striving Less & Trusting God More

This 7-session Bible study by Melissa Spoelstra will encourage us to let go of striving and learn to trust in God's character, His comfort, and even His correction. Isaiah was human like us, and yet he radically trusted God and called anyone who would listen to do the same.

Join us on Tuesday mornings
September 12 – October 24
9 AM - 11:30 AM in the Youth Center

Workbooks will be available for $25 (includes streaming video access for all sessions). Bring a friend! No previous Bible study experience is needed. Sorry, at this time there is no childcare available. To register: call or text April Hussung at (727) 420-1758 or email at stapler39@aol.com.

Wednesday Night Suppers Start September 13

Mark your calendars, because you won't want to miss any of this fall's line-up for Wednesday Night Suppers! They are scheduled for the second Wednesday of each month (except December when it will be on the second Tuesday for essential reasons!)

OUR KICKOFF will be September 13 at 5:30 PM! We'll have Kyle's World-Famous BBQ, including beef brisket, sliced pork and sausage, and all the fixings – cornbread, baked beans, coleslaw, soft green beans, along with Greg Helck's dreamy 3-cheese Mac 'n' Cheese and a variety of desserts.

The New Kids' Choir also will kick off at 6:10 PM! Our first night together on Sept. 13 is set aside for making props for our performance in December! While the kids are busy there, parents are invited to listen to BBQ Master Kyle Brinkmann enlighten us regarding the regional differences when it comes to BBQ. You will even get to vote for your favorite, all while listening to some blue grass music and visiting with friends old and new around the tables! Pick up your kids at 6:40 PM and you'll still have them home and getting ready for bed by 7!

Beach Drive Forums Are Back!

Your Beach Drive Forum planning team is excited to welcome you to our fall season. Please mark your calendars to join in these community conversations at 6 p.m. Sept. 20, Oct. 18 and Nov. 15 in Fellowship Hall. Light delectable bites will be served.

September 20: What Makes a Poem, by St. Petersburg Poet Laureate Gloria Muñoz. Gloria Muñoz, an award-winning Colombian-American writer, translator, and advocate for multilingual literacy, will talk about her career, read from her work and lead the audience in some poetry writing. One lucky person will win a copy of one of her books.

St. Pete Mayor Issues Proclamation Recognizing Date of Ukrainian Independence

The excitement of FPC's congregation is growing as we anticipate the Kyiv Symphony Orchestra and Chorus concert on Sept. 17 at 4 PM. Especially meaningful is Mayor Ken Welch's Proclamation issued on August 10, 2023. It acknowledged the 32nd Anniversary of Ukrainian Independence, August 24, 2023. His proclamation states the following:

"The City of St. Petersburg recognizes the importance of Ukrainian independence as the country of Ukraine continues to struggle and sacrifice to keep their land, freedom, culture, language, and democracy and . . .

St. Petersburg is home to a large Ukrainian Community, which include churches, civic and cultural organizations, and . . .

Ukrainian–American veterans and residents continue to make valuable contributions to the cultural fabric of St. Petersburg by sharing their rich Ukrainian history and heritage, while holding the shared collective values of freedom and democracy, and . . .

The City of St. Petersburg stands in solidarity with the people of Ukraine in commemorating their 32nd anniversary of Ukrainian Independence . . . and ask all citizens to join me in acknowledgement of this day honoring the people of Ukraine and their indomitable spirit of courage and resilience."

The free concert at FPC on September 17 will be presented by 28 Ukrainian women, professional musicians who tour to raise funds for their mission of aiding widows, orphans, war victims and others in need of hope and/or physical comfort. Some of us have signed up to host the musicians. Others are providing food, supplies, and help for the two meals we'll be serving in Fellowship Hall. Greatly needed are folks to help clean up after the meals. Please contact Marilyn Mulcahy (mmulcahyfl@gmail.com) or Lynne Mormino (dmormino@hotmail.com) if you are willing to help.

Reminder: A free-will offering will be collected at the concert – no ticket is needed. 100% of donations go directly to KSOC's mission. We have already collected $9,942 so far! If you wish to contribute, you can do so by writing a check to First Presbyterian Church and writing 'Hope for Ukraine' in the memo line or by going online to fpcstpete.com/give, click Give Now, and then type "Hope for Ukraine" in the memo line.

We look forward to seeing you at this very special event.
